Agenda

- ❖ Introductions – us, you, MCT
- ❖ Usage
- ❖ Very valuable, but underutilized features
- ❖ TransferREADY

“MyCreditsTransfer (MCT) project seeks to aid all students who intend to transfer credit among Illinois higher education institutions.”

One of the intended outcomes of the MCT Project is to provide students who are underrepresented in higher education access to information about how they can most efficiently transfer to baccalaureate-granting institutions.

MCT activities support implementation (including articulation support, usage training, transfer recruiting functions, etc.), promotion, collaboration, maintenance, and evaluation.

MCT is in its 20th year, primarily funded by IBHE and strongly supported by the University of Illinois System
